

Please increase the funding for eRate. All of our charter schools in Chicago have a desperate need for more e-rate funding and need more latitude in spending the money they receive. All of our buildings are older, and they will not be able to introduce digital curricula if they do not have better infrastructure.